STIPULATION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

WHEREAS, HAWAIIAN TELCOM, INC. ("Hawaiian Telcom" or "Company") filed the above-referenced Application on October 1, 2007 requesting that the Public Utilities Commission of the State of Hawaii ("Commission") approve the sale of property at 84-1140 Kaulawaha Road, Waianae, Oahu, Hawaii;

WHEREAS, Hawaiian Telcom maintains that disclosure of certain confidential information could disadvantage Hawaiian Telcom by allowing its competitors to analyze and utilize such information to their competitive advantage;

WHEREAS, Hawaiian Telcom and the Division of Consumer Advocacy ("Consumer Advocate") are parties to the proceeding in the subject docket;

WHEREAS, Hawaiian Telcom anticipates that additional information may be requested or filed during the course of the proceeding in the subject docket that Hawaiian Telcom considers privileged, confidential or proprietary by Hawaiian Telcom;

WHEREAS, Hawaiian Telcom and the Consumer Advocate desire to establish a set of procedures and provisions pertaining to the use and disclosure of information that

Hawaiian Telcom considers to be confidential and any information or that it may in the future contend to be confidential;

WHEREAS, Hawaiian Telcom and the Consumer Advocate understand that during the course of an evidentiary hearing in this matter, if any, if it becomes necessary to address any information provided pursuant to this protective order during the course of the hearing, that portion of the proceeding will be heard in camera; and

WHEREAS, Hawaiian Telcom and the Consumer Advocate understand and recognize that if any information is requested that is considered confidential by a vendor of Hawaiian Telcom, additional agreements and protection may be needed before the release of such information, under additional confidential protection, can be accomplished;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, in accordance with Section 6-61-50 of the Rules, that the Commission issue a protective order covering the confidential information filed by Hawaiian Telcom as follows:

TERMS OF THE ORDER

1. This protective order governs the classification, acquisition, and use of trade secrets and other confidential information produced by Hawaiian Telcom in this docket.

2. All Parties or participants to all or any portion of this docket, including persons who are granted intervention or participation after the effective date of this protective order, shall be subject to this protective order. If the Commission designates a person as a qualified person pursuant to paragraph 12.e. below, that person shall comply with the provisions of this protective order, including executing a Protective Agreement.

APPLICATION OF THE UNIFORM INFORMATION PRACTICES ACT

3. To the extent that any of the documents covered by this protective order consist of "government records," as defined in Hawaii Revised Statutes ("HRS") §92F-3, the provisions of HRS Chapter 92F ("Uniform Information Practices Act" or "UIPA") shall apply to the disclosure of information contained in such documents. In the event any provision of this protective order conflicts with any provision of the UIPA, the UIPA shall control.

CLASSIFICATION

4. Hawaiian Telcom may designate as confidential any information it believes, in good faith, contains trade secrets or other confidential research, development, commercial, financial, vendor, or bid information, including but not limited to cost support studies, detailed financial information and service forecasts. Such information shall be protected against disclosure to a non-qualified person pursuant to the terms of this protective order, unless such information is declassified, or permission to disclose the information to such non-qualified person is granted by the party claiming confidentiality, as provided in paragraph 13 below. In addition, a Party may designate certain information as being confidential and not to be distributed to another Party (not including the Consumer Advocate) by notifying the Commission and the Consumer Advocate in writing setting forth in particularity the information to be kept as confidential and not available to the other Party. With respect to such confidential information, the Party to whom such information is being withheld shall be treated as a non-qualified person from whom such information shall be protected against disclosure in accordance with the terms of this protective order.

5. If Hawaiian Telcom designates information as confidential pursuant to paragraphs 4 above or 6 below, it shall produce the confidential information in accordance with the procedures described in paragraphs 11 through 14 below, and concurrently provide certain information in writing to the Commission and the Consumer Advocate. If Hawaiian Telcom seeks to designate information as confidential, it must: (1) identify, in reasonable detail, the information's source, character, and location, (2) state clearly the basis for the claim of confidentiality, and (3) describe, with particularity, the cognizable harm to the producing party from any misuse or unpermitted disclosure of the information. If the Commission or the Consumer Advocate challenges the claim of confidentiality of the information, Hawaiian Telcom shall bear the burden of proof in supporting its claim of confidentiality, and the Commission will determine whether the information is confidential and whether it should be disclosed under a protective order. Any challenge to the confidentiality of any information shall be made in accordance with paragraph 24 below.

6. Confidential information provided to the Commission or the Consumer Advocate, orally or in any other form, shall be protected as fully as confidential information provided in written form. Hawaiian Telcom shall notify the Commission and the Consumer Advocate when information provided orally or in other than written form includes confidential information. At the time of such notification, Hawaiian Telcom shall, in the manner provided in paragraph 5 above, specify the subject-matter of such confidential information, the basis for the claim of confidentiality, and the cognizable harm to Hawaiian Telcom from any misuse or unpermitted disclosure of the information.

FORMS OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

7. All information claimed to be confidential information shall be subject to the terms of this protective order, and shall be treated by all qualified persons (as defined by this protective order) as constituting confidential information. Unless a different treatment is warranted, any notes, summaries, abstracts, or analyses that are prepared by counsel, experts, or other qualified persons, and that reflect the underlying confidential information, shall also be subject to the terms of this protective order.

DESIGNATION

8. Hawaiian Telcom shall place upon the applicable confidential material the following legend:

CONFIDENTIAL SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER

Whenever only a portion of a document, transcript, or other material is deemed to contain confidential information, Hawaiian Telcom shall, to the extent reasonably practicable, limit the claim of confidentiality to only such portion. However, if such limitation is not reasonably practicable, the entire document, transcript, or other material may be designated as confidential information.

9. With respect to any confidential information that is not under the control of Hawaiian Telcom, other persons shall, to the extent requested by Hawaiian Telcom, cooperate to ensure that all copies of such confidential information bear the legend required in paragraph 8 above.

10. Hawaiian Telcom or the Consumer Advocate may request the Commission to designate as confidential information any document or other information previously produced but not designated as confidential, provided that Hawaiian Telcom or the Consumer Advocate, in the manner provided in paragraph 5 above, specifies the subject-matter of such confidential information, the basis for the claim of confidentiality, and the cognizable harm to Hawaiian Telcom or the Consumer Advocate from any misuse or unpermitted disclosure of the information. In addition, Hawaiian Telcom or the Consumer Advocate shall substitute the previously-produced but not designated as confidential material with the identical material under designation as required in Paragraph 8 above.

DISCLOSURE

11. Except as provided in paragraph 13, confidential information shall not be made available or disclosed to any person who is not a "qualified person" as defined in paragraph 12 below.

12. "Qualified person," as used in this protective order means any one of the following:

- a. The author(s), addressee(s), or originator(s) of the confidential information;
- b. The Commission, its staff, and its counsel (including employees directly employed by such counsel);
- c. The Consumer Advocate, its staff, counsel (including employees directly employed by such counsel), and any consultants retained by the Consumer Advocate specifically to review the confidential information covered under this protective order;
- d. Any other Party or participant to this proceeding, its staff, its counsel (including employees directly employed by such counsel) and any consultants retained by it for this proceeding, provided that no person, whether staff, counsel, consultant or otherwise, who is engaged in developing, planning, marketing, or selling the Party's or participant's products or services, or determining the costs of the Party's or participant's products or services or designing prices of the Party's or participant's products or services to be charged to customers;

- d. Any person approved by Hawaiian Telcom; and
- e. Any person designated as a qualified person by order of the Commission.

13. When a qualified person wishes to disclose confidential information to a non-qualified person, the qualified person must request permission from Hawaiian Telcom. The request shall identify the non-qualified person to whom disclosure is desired; disclose any past, present, or anticipated affiliation between the qualified person and the non-qualified person; specify the exact information to be disclosed; and state the reasons for disclosure. If permission is granted by Hawaiian Telcom, disclosure of the confidential information shall be made to such non-qualified person in the same manner as provided for qualified persons in paragraph 14 below.

PROCEDURE FOR OBTAINING ACCESS

14. Prior to disclosing confidential information to a qualified person other than the Commission and its staff, the qualified person shall read a copy of this protective order, complete a copy of the agreement attached as Exhibit "A" to this protective order, and sign the completed copy of the agreement. A copy of the executed agreement shall be delivered to Hawaiian Telcom and the Commission.

USE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

15. Any confidential information obtained under this protective order shall be used solely in connection with the review of the associated filing and any related administrative and judicial proceedings (at which time the information will continue to be treated as confidential), and shall not be used for any other purpose, including business, governmental or commercial purposes, or in any other administrative or judicial proceeding, except as provided in paragraphs 16 and 17, and except as may be directed by (a) an order of court, (b) an order of the Commission, and (c) the UIPA, including any ruling of the Office of Information Practices.

16. Subject to relevance, materiality and any other evidentiary requirements and subject to confidential protection as contained or set forth in this protective order, any confidential information obtained under this protective order may be used by the Commission, its staff and its counsel (including employees directly employed by such counsel) in any proceeding pending before the Commission involving Hawaiian Telcom, or where the intended use of such confidential information is for the purpose of assisting the Commission in fulfilling its statutory duties and responsibilities. The confidential information shall continue to be treated as confidential until the protection conferred by this protective order (or any other applicable protective order) is terminated by Hawaiian Telcom, or until further order of the Commission.

17. Subject to relevance, materiality and any other evidentiary requirements and subject to confidential protection as contained or set forth in this protective order, any confidential information obtained under this protective order may be used by the Consumer Advocate, its staff, its consultant and its counsel in any proceeding pending before the Commission involving Hawaiian Telcom, or where the intended use of such confidential information is for the purpose of assisting the Consumer Advocate in fulfilling its statutory duties and responsibilities. The confidential information shall continue to be treated as confidential until the protection conferred by this protective order (or any other applicable protective order) is terminated by Hawaiian Telcom, or until further order of the Commission.

18. Unless otherwise ordered by the Commission, if Hawaiian Telcom or the Consumer Advocate desires to file written testimony, information requests, exhibits or any other material that contain or reflect the confidential information, only that part of the page(s) containing or reflecting such information shall be treated as confidential, and that part of any hearing at which such information is discussed shall be held in camera, or under other conditions imposed by the Commission to prevent unnecessary public disclosure of such information. A copy of any confidential page, with any such information deleted, shall be filed to be included in the public record, and each such page shall contain the following designation in the upper left-hand corner:

Confidential Information Deleted
Pursuant To Protective Order No._____.

RETENTION OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

19. Confidential information shall be retained in a locked cabinet dedicated to the storage of confidential information, or otherwise secured to ensure that access to and disclosure of the confidential information is limited to a qualified person.

20. Confidential information that is given to or filed with the Commission or its staff shall be separately bound and placed in a sealed envelope or other appropriate sealed container on which shall appear the following legend:

THIS ENVELOPE IS SEALED PURSUANT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER NO. _____ AND CONTAINS DOCUMENTS WITH CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION. IT IS NOT TO BE OPENED OR THE CONTENTS OF THIS ENVELOPE DISPLAYED OR REVEALED EXCEPT TO QUALIFIED PERSONS AUTHORIZED TO INSPECT THE ENCLOSED DOCUMENTS.

21. Confidential information shall not be reproduced or duplicated, except to make working copies and copies to be filed with the Commission under seal. If a document contains information so sensitive that it should not be copied by anyone, it shall bear the following legend: "Copying Prohibited."

22. If a court or other administrative agency requests, subpoenas, or orders production of confidential information that a qualified person has obtained under this protective order, such person, prior to disclosure, shall promptly notify Hawaiian Telcom of the request, subpoena, or order.

DURATION OF CONFIDENTIALITY

23. The confidentiality of the information produced pursuant to this protective order shall be preserved until Hawaiian Telcom terminates the protection conferred by this protective order, or until further order of the Commission.

APPEAL TO THE COMMISSION

24. If any interested person disagrees with the designation of information as confidential, Hawaiian Telcom and the person so disagreeing shall first make a good faith attempt to resolve the dispute on an informal basis. If the dispute cannot be resolved, the person contesting the confidentiality of the information shall file a motion to compel disclosure or any other appropriate motion with the Commission. Hawaiian Telcom shall bear the burden of proof in supporting its claim, and the Commission will determine whether the information shall continue to be designated as confidential under this protective order. Pending a disposition of the motion, the information in question shall be treated as confidential information and shall not be disclosed except as permitted in this protective order.

NON-WAIVER OF OBJECTIONS AND RIGHTS

25. Hawaiian Telcom and the Consumer Advocate retain the right to contest any assertion or finding of confidentiality or of non-confidentiality.

26. Hawaiian Telcom and the Consumer Advocate retain the right to question, challenge, and object to the admissibility of confidential information on the grounds of relevancy or materiality.

27. Nothing in this protective order shall prevent Hawaiian Telcom or the Consumer Advocate from objecting to requests for production of information or other discovery requests.

MODIFICATION OF THE PROTECTIVE ORDER

28. The Commission may modify this protective order on the motion of Hawaiian Telcom or the Consumer Advocate, or on its own motion, upon reasonable notice to Hawaiian Telcom and the Consumer Advocate and an opportunity for hearing, or the Commission may modify this protective order upon receipt and approval of written stipulation by the parties.

DISPOSAL OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

29. Except as provided in paragraphs 30 and 31 below, within 90 days after the conclusion of this proceeding, persons in possession of confidential information shall, at the option of Hawaiian Telcom, return or destroy all such materials and all copies, notes, tapes, papers, or other medium containing, summarizing, excerpting, or otherwise embodying any confidential information. If Hawaiian Telcom requests destruction, the person destroying the information shall certify its destruction to Hawaiian Telcom, indicating the name of the person destroying the documents, the method of destruction, and the identity of the specific documents destroyed.

30. The Consumer Advocate and its counsel shall be entitled to retain memoranda, pleadings, exhibits of record, written testimony, and transcripts embodying information derived from or incorporating confidential information to the extent reasonably necessary to preserve files on this proceeding. The files shall not be disclosed to any other person.

31. Confidential information produced in this proceeding shall remain in the possession of the Commission, the Consumer Advocate and counsel for the Consumer Advocate for the duration required by applicable statutes, rules and administrative directives.

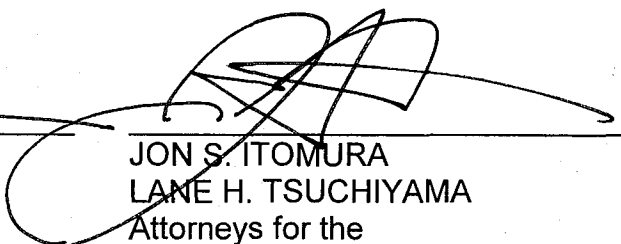

SANCTIONS

32. Any person violating this protective order shall be subject to sanctions imposed by the Commission.
